

Community Organization Summit

PRESENTED BY THE PLACENTIA COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

You are invited to attend a Community Organization Summit
featuring Leticia Mata, Assistant Vice President of Community Education & Development for Orange County's Credit Union

Leticia Mata has been involved in the credit union movement since 1986. She has held various positions in the credit union industry from collections officer to her most current position. Her Project CARE (Community Advocates Reaching Everyone) won the 2007 Beacon Award with Richard Myles Johnson Foundation (RMJ). It involves a group of credit union associates who help provide free financial literacy and share the credit union difference by providing volunteered time for local community outreach. They also provide community workshops and seminars both in English and Spanish to schools, public libraries, small businesses, and community resource centers.
